

Greens For Back-Yard Animals Stressed By County Ext. Service

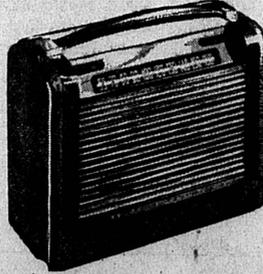

By Agricultural Extension Service, Los Angeles County
Many have continued to feed alfalfa. It is always a problem to find a good supply of green feed for backyard animals. When winter comes, the lawn quits growing and so does alfalfa. That's bad! Because fresh greens are the best possible source of protein and vitamins. A little of them regularly will protect health and maintain production.

ABALONE TAKES

Abalone divers continue to take some good sized pink and green abalones along the Palos Verdes coast in Los Angeles County.

STRIPED BASS LANDINGS

Some striped bass are being caught by fishermen trolling off Decker Island below Rio Vista. There are still many small bass in the river and sloughs.
